Another Attempt to Land Quaran tined Passengers Fails

Flower Aroused-He Says He Wil Have the Island-Blocked by an In-

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—[By the Associated Press.] The events of this day will probably be looked upon in future years as one of the most horrible re-proaches on American civilization that ever occurred in American history. The Federal Government on the one side, the State Government on the other, both anxious to be a rescuing party, and in front the local authorities and private people forcing back victims from a haven of refuge. On Sunday the unfortunate cabin passengers of the Normannia, who for eight days had been confined to the cholera-stricken ship, greeted with delight the informa tion that they were to go to Fire Island. The steamboat was hired, and the first and second-class passengers started for the promised land. The water was rough and many were seasick. After a voyage of about thirty-six miles the weakened, and said he was

In consequence the Cepheus started back and the first-class passengere were once more put on board the rickety old Stonlington liner The second cabin passengers were kept on board the Cepheus without beds or even pillows on which to lay their heads. This was done, and at about 10 o'clock the Cepheus once more started down the bay to embark the first saloon passengers and take them to Fire Island. The trip was again a rough one, but there were more than the elements, to be met. A storm had been brewing around Babylon and Islip since the first rumor that Fire Island was to be turned into a quarantine station was heard. The Babylonians and their near neighbors cared not for their suffering fellow-creatures. They did not care if they died of cholera, starved or were drowned. Lottie Collins, who stood in the first row of passengers that lined the decks of the Cepheus, put out both hands and cried: "Shame! shame! You who call yourselves Americans, shame!" and as the steamer again backed from the dock, the English actress addressed them, and cried, "Shame!" Mr. Wall said he desired to confer with the committee, whereupon several persons shouted: desired to confer with the committee, whereupon several persons shouted: "Supervisor Young represents us." "But we have not a sick person on board; everybody is well, and I appeal to you in behalf of American women and children to allow the people to land," said Mr. Wall.

while this conversation was going on, Dr. Voight appeared on the dock, and began telling Mr. Wall that he had charge there, when several baymen crewded around him, shouting "Throw him into the water! Drown him!" and would probably have carried out their threats but for the reporters. The boat returned to the Cepheus, where the dejected passengers' spirits were being kept up by a band of mais, the band playing the "Star Spangled Banner." "God Save the Queen," and "Yankee Doodle." The boat came off again and Mr. Wall asked to have provisions sent aboard the Cepheus. Some in the crowd shouted: "All right; let them have all the provisions they want." But the greater number answered, "No, no; give them nothing. Let them go back While this conversation was going on, give them nothing. Let them go back

Dr. Volght stated that he was informed that Gov. Flower had telegraphed Sheriff A. B. Darling of Suffolk county to come here with deputies and keep the State properly clear of intruders and protect the Cepheus passengers in landing. 'Many threats were made of burning or cutting down the dock if passengers began to land, and a number of men procured axes with which to cut away sufficient of the dock near the hatel to prevent persons landing. to New York."

The arrangements to insure the carrying out of Gov. Flower's orders and for protecting the hotel have been lamentably inadequate.

At 4:55 Lawyer Eugene Fisher, of Babylon, counsel for the Islip Board of Health, reached here with a copy of the injunction granted by Justice Barnard. His arrival was greeted with ard. They were obdurate; they would not give in, and the passengers of the Normannia are now, on Monday night, lying at the inlet by Fire Island. It is a temporary writ, and is returnable at the general term of the Supreme Court now in session in Brooklyn.

Everything is in readiness in the hotel for the care of the 570 passengers on the Cepheus whenever they are landed. A carload of provisions has just arrived from New York.

The people here have been made in sane by the exercise of power. They have been appealed to in the name of God to permit the ofdest women and youngest children to be taken to the hotel for the night, that if this request were granted their lives might be saved; but they refused, with brutal jeers.

As it was growing dark a small boat came from the direction of the steamer. It was rowed by two policemen, and in the stern stood a gray-haired man, Robert M. Thompson. As the boat approached the landing the mob gathered threateningly. Mr. Thompson asked to be heard on behalf of 200 women and children on the steamer who were suffering from hunger, exposure and exhaustion. After some minutes of insulting retorts by the mob, he was allowed to speak. He said the men on the steamer did not ask to land; the young women would remain, if necessary; but the old women, some of them grandmothers, and the children, suffering not for comforts, but for decenting not for the steamer after a night's rest and one meal. Attorney, Willard P. Reid answered that if the captain of the steamer would come ashore the people to whom he spoke would consider the request.

From that hour, about 5 p.m., the Cepheus was anchored about 200 feet from the dock.

As the Cepheus ran alongside the dock the first time, a hundred voices shouted "You can't land here! Go back to New York." Others shouted threats of throwing the men overboard if they

It did not seem as if human beings, capable of understanding the language in which they were being addressed, could withstand the appeal, but the crowd stood there, sullen and silent, while the lawyer said: "They cannot land. If we permit them, we will give away our case. They cannot land."

"They cannot land," echoed the mob."

Loxnox, Sept. 12.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The latest advices received from Genoa regarding the murder of Frank Reilly, a seaman of the United States steamer Newark, who was killed in a lodging house in Genoa, shows that national animus against Americans was the cause of the crime. The proprietor of the lodging-house, when the Newark's men applied for lodgings, used most abusive language to them, simply because they were Ameri-cans. One of those present, knowing the proprietor, advised the men that it was unsafe for them to remain in the place. All the sailors started for the door, whereupon the proprietor, with a knife in each hand, sprang toward Reilly and stuck both weapons into his

The murder was entirely unprovoked, and Reilly was killed for no other reason than that he was an American. In consequence of the killing of Reilly, the sailors of the United States vessels are not allowed to go on shore while they remain at Genoa.

He maintained that Christian Science He maintained that Christian Science was the fulfilling of the hopes of the world, inasmuch as it reduced to human understanding the laws of spiritual perfection which religion has for ages relegated to the skies. The speaker was emphatic in the assumption that sickness, sin and death were abnormal conditions having no legitimate existence, and were but the erroneus emanations of the human thought. He declared that the belief in the "fall of man" was the direct cause of all the discord manifested in the world, maintaining that man is as perfect today as ever he was and that the recognition of this fact was wholly a question of realization and not of time.

THE CABRILLO CELEBRATION Iembers of the Historical Asso Attend in a Body.

The interest awakened in this city during the collection of the historical exhibit for the State fair and the report of its success as the leading attraction of the visitors at Sacramento has created a lively interest in historical matters, and the Historical Society created a lively interest in historical matters, and the Historical Society finds itself in a fair way to emerge from its comatose state and becom nore generally popular and interesting.

In view of the lively interest shown in the coming Cabrillo celebration at Sar Diego the 28th and 29th of this month the anniversary of the first discovery of California, it is proposed to form party, comprising the members of the Historical Society, Mission Association, and Science Society and visit San Diego during this celebration and take par in the exercises.

This landing is a point that the most able historians have agreed to disagree about and local authorities are equally divided as to the certainty that Sa Pedro Bay was the landing place in Pedro Bay was the landing place instead of San Diego Bay. It is proposed to have a historical debate during the visit as to the claims of San Pedro vs. San Diego, and the array of authorities on both sides promises an interesting presentation of the subject.

Few States have as interesting his torical problems, and there is no promising sign of the intelligence of our citizens that so general an interest has been awakened in these matters go in a body to visit the ruins of the first of those buildings erected in California at the old town of San Diego This proposed visit will be the first oc-casion that an organized local gather-ing has visited the neighboring city and San Diego proposes to entertain in royal style. Such historical events will be made the means of developing further mutual celebrations. An Associated Press dispatch from

San Diego last evening, says:

The first intimation of a big excursion party for the Cabrillo festival, on the 28th and 29th, comes from Miss Kelso of Los Angeies, who spent Sunday here in conference with the committee. She represents the Southern California Historical Society, and also the Society for the Preservation of the Missions, of which she is president. The plan is to bring a big party under the two organizations auspicies to visit while here the old San Diego Mission. Miss Kelso met, with a cordial reception. San Diego last evening, says:

In order to defend his honor he presented a statement of the facts in the case in writing. The clerk had presented a statement of the facts in the case in writing. The clerk had since made a full report of all the acts of the Council with reference to certain legislation at Sacramento. He now claimed that this report bore cut his allegation that prior to February 2 the Mayor had not been authorized to go North. The Mayor signed the order on the emergency fund on January 81, and the best kind of evidence that there was no emergency about the matter was was no emergency about the matter was the fact that he did not draw the money

He then presented the following resolution, which was adopted as read without further comment: without further comment:

PHYSICIAN, DR. WONG, for his superior medical abilities and curative powers.
It has long been customary among the Chinese people when one becomes sick and when repeated attempts to cure him have failed, and he is perhaps given up to die, if, after having been taken to an emisent physician, he be cured of his disease—the cured, too in addition to the regular fee for professional services rendered, makes the physician a present as a token of gratitude for his restoration to health and the prolongation of his life. This present consists usually of a broad plank, presenting much the appearance of a sign-board, filled with characters entirely meaningless to the average English scholar, but full of meaning to the successful physician afus friends. It is a motto which highly compliments the physician for his great skill in effecting a cure of the disease which once afflicted the donor.

It is not an uncommon thing to see a great number of these COMPLIMENTARY DIPLOMAS adorning the office walls of Chinese physicians in their native country, and indeed a number of the most successful often in this country are the happy possessors of a few of these high tokens of very superior medical ability.

ADIES came pouring into the store all day yesterday; they realize the fact that anything said in an advertisement is literally carried out. We are advertising a line of Dress Goods today at 50c per yard that we know are being sold in this city at 75c; we have simply cut the profits one half and expect to treble sales. A merchant to gain trade must be bold in his achievements; to offer a small lot of stuff at a loss gains no trade, nor enthusiasm. We have taken 200 pieces of 75c Dress Goods and landed the price at one jump to 50c; we have placed in the lot ten or a dozen pieces worth 85c to even up the styles and to make it the best lot of goods ever offered at the price-that will bring respect for our statement and trade for our boldness. Storm Serges, criss-cross, zig-zag styles, rough-and-ready effects, reminding one more of the hardy Scotch than of the smooth Yankee that made them, Russia bands and nacra effect are suitable for trimming. Velvet a dollar a yard, the dollar twenty-five quality to make them a little more desirable for cheapness and to still retain quality and style-this is all to your advantage and to ours if we can treble sales.

The Cloak trade is centered here in the largest cloak room in the West. Confidence begets trade-you will not be disappointed if we say to you that on our second floor you will see more cloaks than if you went all over Los Angeles and then visited San Diego in the bargain. The cloak sales are a marvel when one considers we have warm weather yet. We are cutting profits in the cloak room, and already have sold more goods in 1892 than in the entire year of 1891, and the very cream of the season is before us. Shoes are still in the way—we need the room badly; all shoes at factory cost. We are going out of shoes; we now have them cornered up in a small space we very much need. The trade of this house today resembles boom

A Lively Township Convention at Williams's Hall.

New Men Capture the Nominations-City Council Proceedings-A Smooth Swindler—Personals and Brevities.

The Pasadena Township Republican Con-The Pasadena Township Republican Con-vention convened yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Williams's Hall. It was 6 o'clock when it adjourned, and, although it in-volved nothing more than the nomination of two justices of the peace and as many constables, it was red-hot from start to finish. Interest never lagged and the pro-ceedings would have done credit to any county convention of recent years. The township comprises 30 delegates, 21 from ownship comprises 30 delegates, 21 from Pasadena, 4 from North Pasadena, 3 from Pasadena, 4 from North Pasadena, 3 from Lamanda Park and 2 from Sierra Madre. About one-half of this number were pres-ent in person. The other half were repre-sented by other gentlemen, who came armed with proxies drawn up in regula-tion style, so that the full 30 votes were cast in every instance.

J. W. Downing called the meeting to or J. W. Downing called the meeting to or-der, Capt. A. H. Wakeley was chosen chairman and Benjamin W. Hahn secre-tary. tary. Dr. Bridge of Sierra Madre opened the ball by stating that the castern end of the district is entitled to one of the two justices. He argued that a justice and a city recorder are amply able to attend to all the Pasadena business, and that it is inconvenient for the Lamanda Park and Sierra Madre people to drive five miles or more to air their differences in a justice's court. It would be an act of generosity and justice, he stated, for Pasadena to bestow upon the people of his constituency such privilege.

W. S. Wright thought the secretary should call the roil to ascertain who were present and who held proxies. This was done. Dr. Bridge then presented his ideas, in the form of a motion to the effect that one justice and one constable be elected outside Pasadena to represent the codntry section. About this time two men, who were carrying some wooden store shelves, got tired and let them down heavily on Fair Oaks avenue. There was a little noise, and the convention made an impromptu adjournment to see whose runaway it was and how many were killed.

After the returning delegates had recovered their self-possession, Mr. McDonald moved that the voting be done by secret bailot. Mr. Wright seconded the motion. The idea didn't strike Dr. Bridge at all favorably, and he said so. He thought it would be an easy way to defeat the rural candidate. Mr. Wright said he favored one of the offices going to the country, only he wanted to know what sort of a candidate was to be put up bfore he would bind himself to vote for nim. Delegate Hahn and Delegate A. J. Wallace, who held his brother's proxy, took the same view of the situation. This brought the Sierra Madra delegate to his feet again. He told the convention if it would pass his motion, it could name any man it pleased for the office. He didn't want to appear as the champion of any particular man, but he did want the rights of the country protected. After some more talk, the clearly-objectionable motion was withdraw, Dr. Bridge being practically assured that if he pr

Mr. Lawrence stated he had made no canvass for the place, but if it were given him he would endeavor to fill the bill to the satisfor the place, but if it were given him he would endeavor to fill the bill to the satisfaction of the country constituents. Mr. Merriam did not want to be presented in the light of needing the office. Fitness should be the only qualification, and in case of his nomination and election he would endeavor "to get there" on this issue. Mr. Gardner remarked that he had had some experience in this particular line of work, and had always performed his duties to the best of his ability. 'He would be glad to have another try at it. Neither Capt. Tubbs nor his $5 William was forthcoming, and he was accordingly declared out of the race.

Then followed a long and serious argument over the question of whether or not to vote by secret ballot. The friends of the secret ballot won the fight by a standing vote of 12 to 6, and it was so ordered.

Each delegate voted for two delegates, and the result of the ballot was:

Later in the meeting the petition was ordered field.

The Committee on Auditing and Finance submitted its report for August, recommending the payment of bills to the amount of $4955.79, which was approved, and warrants ordered drawn to the above amount.

for one week.

The financial reports of the several city officers for August, and for the quarter ending August 31, were submitted and referred to the Auditing and Finance Committee without reading. That of City Recorder Rose showed two cases tried and fines to the amount of $5 imposed during August. Marshal Buchanan reported four arrests during the same period. A communication was received from the Terminal Railway Company formally accepting the conditions of the ordinance passed at the last meeting relative to laying the new tracks across Colorado street.

P. G. Wooster submitted a statement pointing out some alleged errors in the work of assessment this year. Briefly summed up it is as follows: In 1889-90 the Wooster Block on South Fair Oaks avenue was assessed at $25,000. This year the assessment is $21,600, a reduction of between 13 and 14 per cent. In 1889-90 the Exchange Block on Colorado street, with fifty feet more frontage and much deeper, was assessed at $40,000. This year the figures are $24,000, a reduction of 40 per cent. or a reduction of over 26 per cent. more than on the Wooster Block in the matter of realty and improvements. Mr. Wooster's figures go to show that in 1880-90 the assessed valuation of the Exchange Block was lowered from $58,850 to $40,305, while the figures on the Wooster Block came down from $10,425 to $24,935, or a little over 18 per cent. In 1890-91 the Exchange Block dropped from $40,000 to $35,000, and the Wooster Block from $25,000 to $31,000 and the Wooster Block from $25,000 to $31,000 and those of the Wooster Block from $25,000 to $31,000 and those of the Wooster Block figures changed from $35,000 to $31,000 and the Wooster Block from $25,000 to $31,000 and those of the Wooster Block figures so saw fit to take off $3000 more from the Exchange Block, and it was handed in at $28,000, while the Wooster Block figures were fixed at $21,600, a raise of $1600. Later on the Board of Equalization made a turther reduction of $4000 in tavor of the Exchange Block, and it was handed in at $28,000, while the Wooster Block in the world by Mr. Wooster at $21,600, and that owned by

SAN BERNARDINO.

In the City Hall at Colton, at 2:15 Monday afternoon, the Republican County Convention to select fourteen delegates to the Senatorial Convention of the Thirty-ninth Senatorial District to be held at South Riverside on the 19th, was called to order by William Gird, chairman of the County Central Committee. The call for the convenience of the County Central Committee. tral Committee. The call for the conven-tion was read by Secretary Wilson.

Judge H. C. Rolfe of San Bernardino was elected chairman by acclamation. Will C. elected chairman by acclamation. Will C. Bailey was nominated and elected secretary by acclamation. At this juncture a bouquet of flowers was presented with the compliments of the Republican Tadies of Colton. In accepting it the convention invited the ladies to seats upon the stage. After appointing committees on credentials and order of business a recess of thirty minutes was taken in order that the committees might prepare their reports. was taken in order that the committees might prepare their reports. The full delegation of 210 was present in person or by proxy.

The Committee on Permanent Organization presented a majority, signed by four members, and a minority report signed by one member, the latter by the member from Riverside. Here the first fight began between the divisionists and anti-divisionists. The majority report called for a committee of five to name fourteen delegates to be voted for to represent this county at the Senatorial convention. The minority report called for the naming of seven delegates from each of the two Assembly districts represented. The discussion waxed warm upon the question of how these delegates should be selected. A member from Colton moved as a substitute that the delegates be appointed from the five Supervisor districts. Upon this proposition the vote by precincts was moved and secured. The question was lost by a vote of 75 to 129. The question of adopting the minority report was then put and lost by a vote of 77 to 132. This was the second defeat of the Riverside delegation. The vote was then taken upon the adoption of the majority report, which was adopted by a vote of 131 to 78. The Colton delegation divided its vote upon each of these questions. Upon the announcement of the vote the delegates from those precincts within the Seventy seventh Assembly District withdrew. The Chair then announced as the committee to name delegates to the Senatorial convention the following: W. J. Melville of Mission (Old San Bernardino; William Gird, San Bernardino; C. M. Damron, San Bernardino; Bradford Morse, Riverside, George A. Cooke, Redlands. The committee named the following delegates: C. C. Bennett, Redlands; George H. Crafts, Crafton; R. T. Jenkins, Beaumont; H. C. Rolfe, San Bernardino; J. W. F. Grow, Highland; C. W. C. Rowell, San Bernardino; J. M. Lynch, Riverside; Henry H. Cole, San Bernardino; A. J. Downer, Mill; A. N. Kumier, Etiwanda. The report was accepted with few dissenting votes, the members withdrawing three cheers for the whole Republican ticket, the convention adjourned.

The members from the Seventy-seventh Assembly District met in the Council cha mber and organized as a boiling convention with Richard Gird of Chino in the chair and Dr. R. D. Barber of South Riverside as secretary. Upon motion the number of delegates present was-found to be sixtythree, and those declared themselves a convention of the Seventy-seventh Assembly three, and those declared themselves a convention of the Seventy-seventh Assembly District for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Senatorial convention at South Riverside to be held on the 19th inst. The following delegates were put in nomination by the convention as a whole and declared elected: Richard Gird, Chino; George L. Joy, South Riverside; W. B. Clancy, Banning; Byron Andrus, East Riverside; A. A. Wood, Riverside; A. P. Johnson, Riverside; Bradford Morse, Riverside. The contesting delegates then adjourned.

The Riverside raisin-growers held a meeting last Saturday for the purpose of considering the advisability of forming some sort of an organization for the purpose of securing better prices for raisins, and a part of the profits to the grower as well as the commission men. Most of those present were men past middie age, and a free discussion of the matter was had. The following committee was then appointed to bring the matter into definite form in the way of a plan for a permanent organization: Dr. Jarvis, T. H. B. Chamblin, Mr. Elliott, H. A. Puls, R. W. Meacham. The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of Chairman M. B. Ogden. At the last meeting of the Riverside Wheelmen the following omeers were elected: Stanley Castleman, president; J. A. A singular case of well merited benefit for a kind and hospitable act was brought to light in the death of an old man last Monday at the house of Mr. Murray in this to light in the death of an old man last Monday at the house of Mr. Murray in this city. About two years and a half ago an old man by the name of J. H. Kibbe came to this city claiming, as he did, that he was without relatives, friendless and alone. He accidentally became acquainted with J. W. Murray and wife. Mr. Murray is a plumber by trade, in the employ of Edwards & Co. He was gentlemanly in his manners and cleanly in his person and fortunately for him resembled Mrs. Murray's father in appearance. Mrs. Murray proposed that they fix up a room in their house, take the old man in and care for him, for what little work he might do about the place, which was not much, as he was 75 years of age. This they did without any hope of reward or further remuneration than the fact of doing a kind act. He had been with the Murray family about a year and a half when he became sick and was confined to his bed for four weeks. At this time he informed his new found friends that if they would not turn him out, he had enough to defray the expenses of his burial and a little besides. He recovered, however, and enjoyed fairly good health again until about three weeks ago he took sick again and, as above stated, died last Monday and was buried the following Tuesday. Before dying he made a will bequeathing his whole property amounting to some $2000 in cash deposited in Minneapolis, Minn, and San Diego banks, besides a box containing valuable papers, also deposited in San Diego, to J. W. Murray and wife. The old man was born and raised in Ohio, coming to California in 1849, worked in the mines and finally drifted around to Santa Barbara, friendless and alone, where he fell into good hands.

Result of the Swimming Tournament at Coronado.

Several of the Prizes Won by Los Angeles Boys—The Political Situation B coming Decidedly Interesting. News in Brief.

One of the most novel and interesting exhibitions that has been witnessed in many days was the aquatic tournament at Coronado Sunday. The contest was between a team of Los Angeles, led by Prof. Charles H. Doyle, and a similar team from Coronado, under command of Prof. J. Anderton. Just before the commencement of the programme an exciting scene occurred. A large crowd had assembled at the Coronado large crowd had assembled at the Coronado boat house and the platform in front of the building was crowded—with—ager spectators, when it gave way, precipitating about fifty people into the bay. The scene was one of-wild excitement. It seemed certain that some fatalities must result, but the prompt an intelligent efforts of the contestants in the tournament, together with the assistance of some of the spectators and the aid of a number of skiffs that speedily came to the rescue, all were taken out of the water without being seriously injured. Several received slight bruises. Among those who were precipitated into the water were a number of ladies and children. Several of the gentlemen are mourning the loss of their watches.

In the one-hundred-yard race there were nine entries. The first prize was won by William Rice and the second by Ross Shane, both of Los Angeles.

In the quarter-mile race the first prize was won by Rice in 12:12; second by Frank Goodendorf of Coronado.

A tub race between Kenzle and Young was won by the former.

Some fine exhibitions of fancy diving and swimming were given by Jack Black, G. Tuttle and Ross Shane. The game of water polo was won by the Coronado team, which consisted of J. Anderton, Stanley Betts, Richard Benbough, Arney Babcock, Frank Goodendorf and isaac Polhamus. The Los Angeles team consisted of Rice, Kenzle, Widney, Shane, Young and Byron.

The political situation in this county is increasing in interest daily. The nominees of the various parties are getting down to work without unnecessary delay. They all seem to recognize the fact that the average voter is very independent this year and party lines will be badly demoralized. The strength of the People's party is an unknown quantity, but it is safe to say that it is much more in the country than in the city. After the disgraceful exposures of corruption and extrawagance that have been made in various county offices, honesty and integrity are at a higher premium than party affiliations. The present indications are that the contest for county offices will be largely, individual in character—a campaign of personal integrity and litness, rather than party service and reward. Each candidate feels that whoever "gets there" will have to work for it. POLITICS.

The other night he called at her room, and when she refused to live with him again he drew a knife and threatened to cut her throat from ear-to ear. She was so ffightened that she wen Passenger Agents Disgusted With the Dull Times-Even Cut Rates Won't Stir Up Business-General Railroad Notes.

It is announced by a circular that the roads in the Transcontinental Associa-tion will carry free, returning, all goods exhibited at the World's Fair, that have paid full tariff rates to the same, but only by those routes that originally carried said exhibits to the exposition; this, contingent on presentation, at the time of returning shipment, of receipted expense bills, showing charges paid to the exposition, accompanied by certificate of duly authorized official, that same has been on exhibition, and has not changed hands; said papers to be surcendered to the receiving railroad agent. SCRAP BEAP. The Phillips excursion starts East to-day with a large list of passengers. John L. Truslow, general agent for the Santa Fé at Santa Barbara, was in the city yesterday.

The passenger agents of Los Angeles won't even claim to have sold more than half a dozen Grand Army tickets to Washington. There was a good deal of fuss for a very little business.

Amos Burr, the ever genial passenger representative of the Vanderbilt lines, came down from San Francisco by boat yesterday, bringing with him his daughter, Emmogene, who will remain a season with friends in this city.

The roads running to Chicago are re-fusing to make a rate of one fare for the round trip to the Columbus celebra-tion in October, and are being roundly berated by the papers of that city for what is termed their lack of foresight and public spirit.

The passenger agents at the Chicago meeting found it an up-hill job trying to restore the demoralized rates, as the Southern Pacific showed no disposition to reduce the exorbitant commission that road is now paying on Pacific Coast business coming by way of New Orleans.

It is understood that the round trip It is understood that the round trip rate from Los Angeles to San Diego for the Cabrillo celebration will be $5 unless somebody guarantees that at least seventy-five people will go, in which case a much lower rate can be secured. Of course, everybody knows that more than seventy-five people will want to go, but the thing is for some one to guarantee it, as is done for excursions of societies.

HIT WITH A CLUB.

Dan Keyane Assaulted on the Street by Mrs. Maloney. At 12:80 o'clock yesterday afternoon a highly sensational fight, with a woman at one end of a club and a man dodging the business end, took place at the corner of Temple and Spring streets in this city.

The woman was Mrs. Maloney, the mother of Mrs. Paige, who married the notorious bunco steerer, Bailey, a few months ago, and was deserted by that flash gentleman as soon as he discove ered that he could not get control of his new wife's property.

Dan Kevane was at the business end of the club, and notwithstanding the fact that he is one of the most active little men in the city, he received one or two blows at the hands of the engaged female.

on the subject.

As near as can be learned Mr. Kevane is interested in a case that concerns Mrs. Maloney to a certain extent. The of land between this city and Pasadena that belongs to the Paige estate.

Kevane has claimed all the time that he had a verbal lease with the late Paige to run a number of years; and up to date he has managed to hold possession.

It seems that Mrs. Maloney decided to settle matters yesterday, and when she and her daughter met Dan on Temple and Spring streets they called a hait, and the elder lady began to abuse the little man as only an enraged woman care. oman can.

That Will Become You!

To be becomingly dressed is a lady's most ardert wish. To say that tact and judgment is required to be able to select becoming things is a self-evident truth. We can see at a glance when a dress does not look well, and likewise discover a faulty blending. We have studied the question some and laid down rules for you to follow:

A CLEAR BRUNETTE may select golden brown Cheviot or a navy blue Storm Serge for street wear, a dark red India Silk for house wear and a pink or yellow swivel-figured Glace Silk for evening wear.

A SALLOW BRUNETTE may wear a red dish brown Homespun, or dark navy Lithtning-weave Serge, the latter faintly edged with a bit of cardinal, for street wear; a bright red Henrietta for house wear, and a medium deep yellow China Silk for evening wear.

A COLORLESS BLONDE should have a clear, dark green Habit Cloth for street, and a pinkish, fawn or golden brown Armurette, together with a bright red or true old rose Cashmere for a home gown, and for evening a gown of rose pink of our superb clinging Surette.

AN AUBURN-HAIRED BLONDE with a clear complexion may wear the lovely willow green Crepon or gray Mountain Cloth for street, while for evening an antique Blue Lavendar or pale green Shanghai Silk will be bewitchingly becoming.
